- Adjust teaching based on data

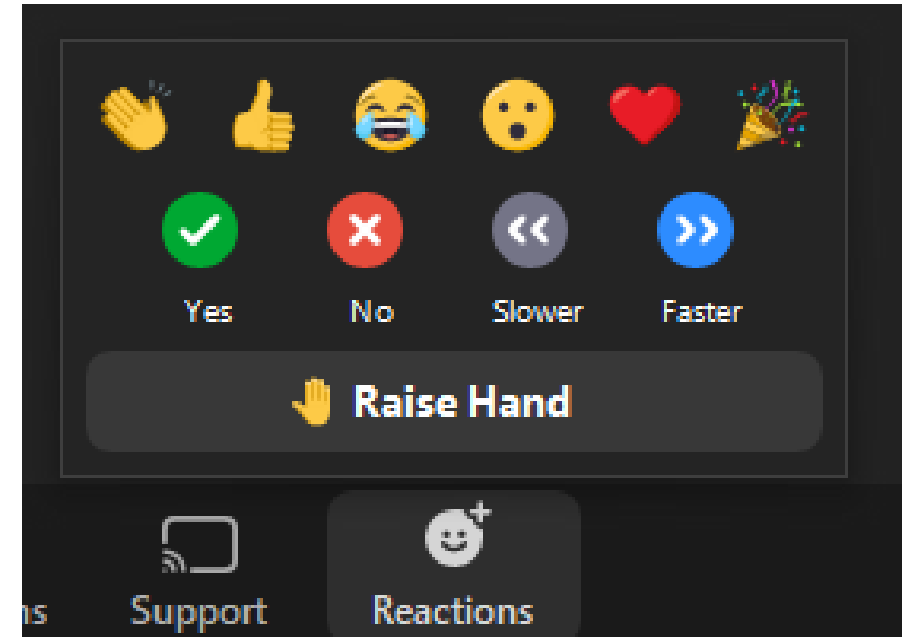

Part 1

Synchronous Feedback Tools with Zoom

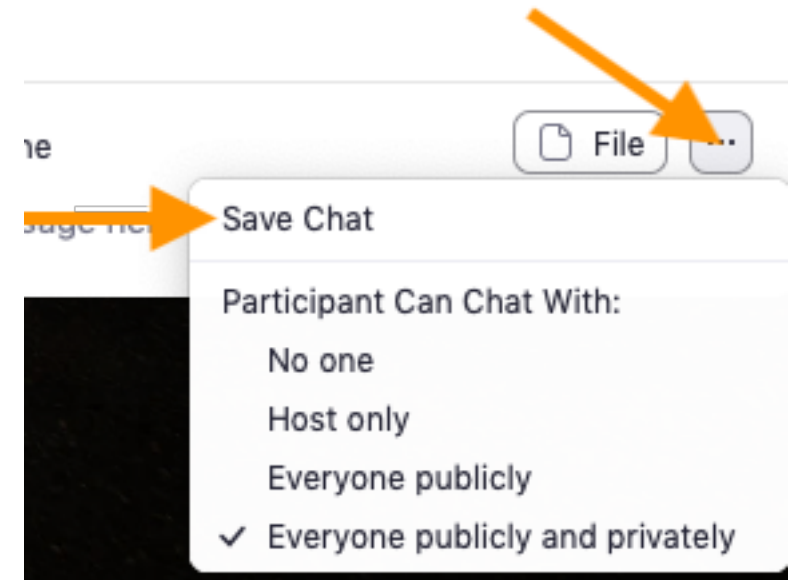

Reactions in Zoom

- A quick way to get student feedback.
- Reactions show up in Gallery View and Participants.
- Participants shows how many participants have a reaction.

Chat Options

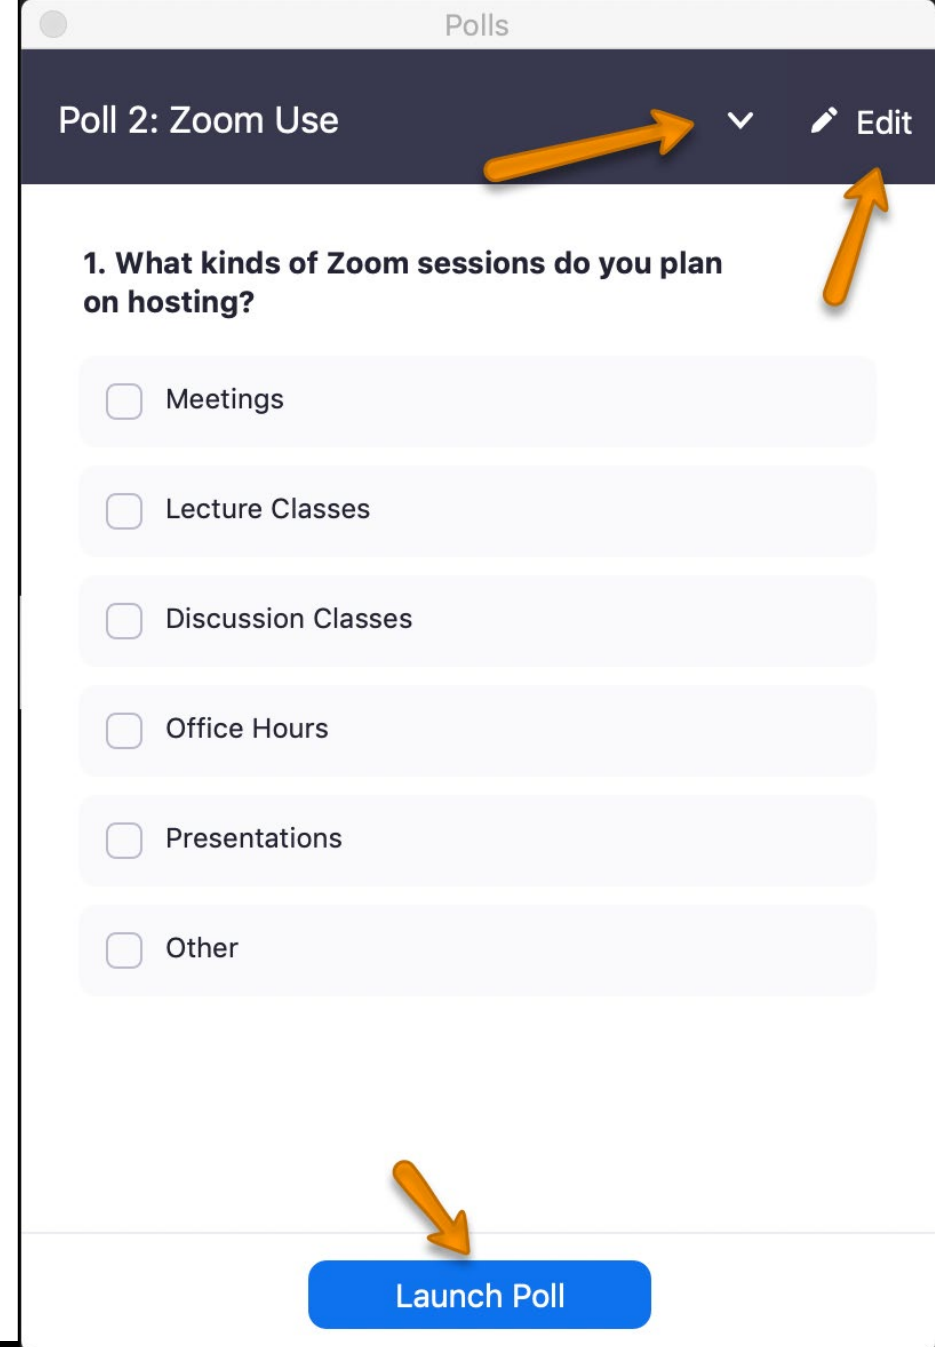

- A way all students can participate.
- Set guidelines for how to use chat in your class.
- TAs or students can watch chat during lecture.
- Save chats using ... or autosave all chats in settings at uiowa.zoom.us.

Polls

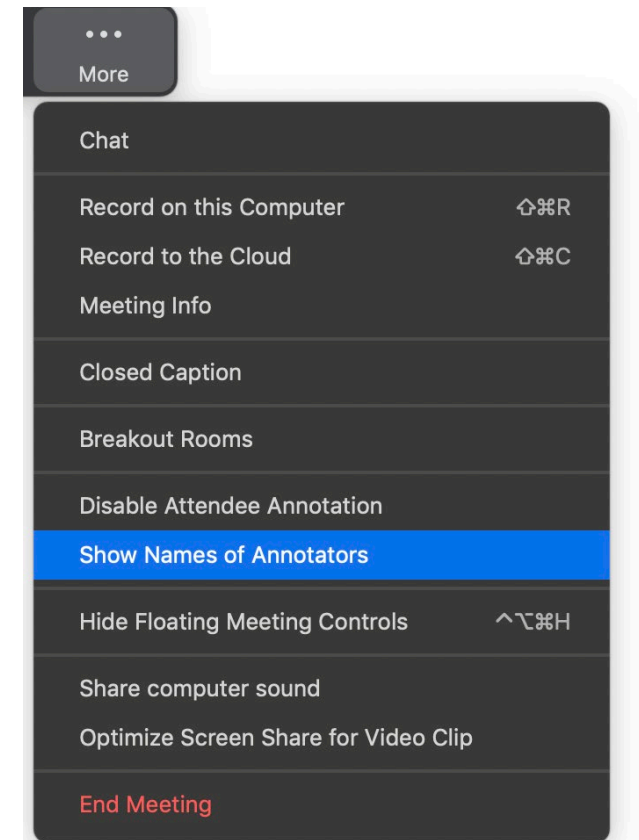

- Only the creator of the Zoom session can create polls.
- All hosts and cohosts can activate poll questions.
- Polls available in reoccurring Zoom sessions.
- Can access poll reports up to a month later.
- No ICON gradebook connection.

Annotations

- Quick check on mood or learning.
- Can allow annotations during screenshare.
- Anyone can save screenshot of annotations.

On a 1-9 rubber duck scale, how are things going today?

Part 2

Asynchronous Feedback Tools in ICON

ICON Discussions

- Ungraded discussions good for ongoing questions.
- Graded discussions can be used to check student understanding.
- Set expectations for when instructors will respond to questions and comments.
